

Bird Fest

Saturday, June 16, 2012

Turkey Run State Park

Birds are a noisy, beautiful, everyday part of our lives. Join us for a day of celebration and fun at Turkey Run as we take a close look at our feathered friends!

Schedule of Activities:

8 a.m. Bird Hike – Bring binoculars if you can and take a hike with a pro. Learn some calls, see some birds, and learn how to enjoy yourself in a whole new way.

9:30 a.m. Help Feed The Birds – Gather at the nature center to help seed the wildlife observation area, and then watch through large windows as wild birds and mammals eat and interact!

10:15 a.m. Bluebirds Like You've Never Seen Them – Join bluebird expert Art Jeffries for an amazing slide show and talk about the eastern bluebird. You just won't believe some of the photos and information Art will bring to Turkey Run.

2 p.m. Planetarium Star Show – Reserve a seat in the planetarium for a 40-minute look at the night sky in the comfort of our planetarium. Constellations, planets, legends and more!

3 p.m. Lusk Home Tour - Meet in the basement of the Salmon Lusk Home for a 1-hour tour of this 1841 brick mansion. Must be able to climb stairs. A $2/person donation is requested but not required.

8 p.m. Live Hawks & Owls – Gather at the amphitheater (by the Olympic pool) to see several live large bird of prey, and let Mark Booth share his years of personal experiences with these magnificent raptors.
